St. Michael's Newsletter

From the Rector

“O God, you will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are fixed on you; for in returning and rest we shall be saved; in quietness and trust shall be our strength.”
Isaiah 26:3; 30:15

Those with a keen eye will note that once again the July/August newsletter begins with these words from Isaiah. These verses appear in the Book of Common Prayer, page 138, in the daily devotion “At Noon.” Usually by noon we are fully engaged in the daily work and activity of our lives. Hours have been put in, and more hours are to come. For now, it is time for a break. Isaiah encourages people to be mindful of the presence of God and to rest, if only momentarily.

The same can be said as the days turn to weeks and months and a year. With blessings for the work and activities of our lives, God call us to Sabbath rest as well. The summer season beckons. School is out. Various programs have concluded. The days are long. The air is warm. Vacations, or at least a slightly slower pace, are in sight. Again Isaiah reminds people to be mindful of the presence of God. The words of encouragement to turn (or rather, return) to this presence are “peace”, “rest”, “quietness”, “trust.” Here people will find strength and renewal for the work and activities ahead. I am mindful that I write these words prior to the Lobster Lunch over the July 4 weekend – not a time of rest for the parishioners of St. Michael’s, and especially the coordinators of this year’s luncheon! One of the great offerings of St. Michael’s to the wider community, the generous and enthusiastic work of all involved in the Lobster Lunch is critical to our outreach efforts as well. We are called to service, yes, and then to Sabbath rest!

May these months of July and August be an enjoyable, peaceful, and restful time in the presence of God.

- Fr. Andrew

July—August Sunday Schedule

One Service: 9:00 am Holy Eucharist with Music

Though attendance tends to drop during the summer months, Sunday services still continue for those who seek such spiritual nourishment. Please note that on Sundays during July and August the 8:00 and 10:00 services will be brought together for one service at 9:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist, Rite I will be celebrated the first two Sundays of July and August, and Rite II the other Sundays. - Fr. Andrew

St. Michael's Lobster Lunch—a Community Event

From the Music Director

During the second week of June, the St. Michael's Choir and I spent three long evenings in the church making a recording of our (and your!) favorite anthems and hymns. The Choir did excellent work, adapting to the very different demands of a recording session as compared to singing for a church service - I was very proud of all of them. The recording will be ready sometime in the fall - watch this space for more information.

July 4th Organ Concert and Quiz

Please join me on Monday, July 4 at 12:30 pm in the Church for our annual July 4th Concert, which this year will feature works by Charlie Parker, William Albright and my suite of pieces based on locations on Cape Ann, called Cape Ann Portraits.

We'll have our quiz again - NAME THAT TUNE - and the person with the most correct will win two lobster rolls. Admission is free, so please plan on attending and bring a friend. You'll hear some things that you wouldn't normally hear in a church service! Happy Summer to all.

St. Michael's Lobster Lunch— an ECF Vital Practice

“What's Your Claim to Fame?” is the question in the Vital Posts blog on June 30, 2011. Nancy Davidge, editor of ecfvp.org and Marblehead resident, cites St. Michael's Lobster Luncheon and St. Andrew's rummage sales as examples of how churches can be known in their communities. Ecfvp—Vital Practices for Leading Congregations is an Episcopal Church Foundation service helping people of faith to respond to the changing needs of the Church and is best known for its Vestry Papers. The blog post can be seen at <http://www.ecfvp.org/posts/whats-your-claim-to-fame-3/>.

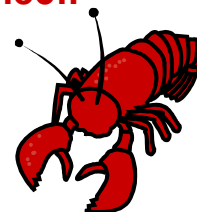

The lobster luncheon is on Nancy's must do list. We hope it is on yours as well.

Church School & Youth—Aileen Ryder

Church School

Church School meets Sunday mornings at 9:30 am. Students in pre-K-1st grade use Godly Play. Weaving God's Promises is for students in grades 2-5. We will meet again September 11.

The Supper Club

A gathering of Middle School Youth on the 2nd & 4th Tuesdays of the month at 6pm. We will meet again in September. Youth may stay connected through our Facebook page.

2011-2012 Highlights

Open House & Registration September 11. We will begin our Church School year together with an open house. This is a great opportunity to invite friends and neighbors to our Church School.

Blessing of the Backpacks Children and youth are invited to bring their school bags to Church on Sunday September 11. Fr. Andrew will bless their backpacks and their coming school year.

Teacher Orientation Next year we will have "teaching teams" for the Church School. We will arrange dates for orientation sessions with each group.

Michaelmas All families are welcome to join in our parish-wide celebration.

National Children's Sabbath, Christmas Pageant, Mother's Day These three Sundays are big days for our children and youth. They all take special leadership roles in our worship.

One-Room Church School During the winter months our children come together in one class. This allows our children to reach across their age differences and see themselves as a whole community. It also lightens the work load of our teachers. For those who would like to be involved, but can't commit to the entire year, this is a great opportunity to be involved.

Potlucks We have all enjoyed the family potlucks. At these events we not only share food and companionship, our children have the opportunity to play together creating their own strong community ties. If you would like to help host a potluck please contact Aileen.

Craft Days We prepare for Christmas and the fair with a special craft day. This past year we added another celebration for Easter. Let's make this a continuing tradition. These craft days are celebrations for children, youth and their parents.

Movie Nights Faith formation can take place through liturgy, class and even movies!

Getting Involved

There are many ways to be involved with the young people of our congregation. Church School teachers share their faith with children. Training is offered for all volunteers; you don't need to be a teacher or a theologian to teach in the Church School! The Supper Club would be happy to have additional cooks and chaperones. Please contact Aileen if you would like to be involved.

Safe Church

Summer is a great time to complete the online safe church training. Contact Aileen for more information.

Summer Growth

We know summer is a great time for growing, one only needs to look at the summer flowers to see this truth. Yet we can somehow lose our focus on spiritual growth. We get busy with camps, vacations, barbecues, etc. Although there is no Church School during the summer, children are always welcome. Our activity bags have been updated for the summer months and we always have books, movies and CDs that our children are welcome to borrow.

If you can't make it to Church on Sunday maybe you can locate one of Sunday's readings in your child's Bible. The readings for the coming Sunday are listed in the bulletin each week, or check out <http://www.lectionarypage.net/>. You may want to consider turning your vacation travels into a pilgrimage: include a visit to a sacred site. Even a trip to the beach can turn into an opportunity for spiritual growth. Wonder with your child at the glory of God's creation. Say a prayer of praise such as Psalm 100 or "Thank you, O God, for all your gifts of creation. AMEN!" Caring for the environment is another great way to express gratitude. Encourage your child to clean up the beach, park or wherever you may be, as an act of prayer.

A Serendipitous Find

During the summers in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, Marblehead filled with residents from Boston and elsewhere who stayed in "cottages" on Marblehead Neck, Peach's Point and in hotels along the shore of Marblehead Harbor. Some of these summer residents were actually 'Headers' born in Marblehead, but then running businesses in Boston and living in Back Bay most of the year. And many summer residents attended St. Michael's and gave generously to support its activities. The Rev. John Egbert's listing of donations for the 1888 renovations and 1893 Parish House many names of Boston and Cambridge residents.

A 100 year-old invitation was discovered recently in Boston. A St. Michael's parishioner found it when she was perusing the duplicate book sale shelf at the library and looked through a 1972 copy of Marblehead: The Spirit of '76 Lives Here. Slipped within the pages was an invitation to a Lawn Festival given the "The Summer League of Old St. Michael's." So far, we have not found information of this organization in St. Michael's Archives, but suspect that it may have been an organization of summer resident parishioners. Have you heard of this group?

Our Stewards of the Month: David and Peggy Bittermann

Peggy and David both grew up in church-going families, though not Episcopalian. They drifted away from church attendance during the college years, but in 1990 they began to visit churches looking for a church home. They liked the historical church, the liturgy, and the music of St. Michael's even though they were new to it. They found both the church and Father Westerberg welcoming. David says, "Early on some one told us that we had to come to coffee because it was part of the liturgy, too." And Peggy says, "I liked the Peace especially, when we all say hello to each other." She remembers that going up to the altar for Communion was a new experience and a big step for her.

David & Peggy at an organ recital reception, November 2010.

Ever since, they have been active members. Peggy has served a term on the Vestry and is co-chair of the Outreach Committee. She does Hostess and Oblations and is a member of St. Catherine's Guild. David remembers that Dorothy Miles asked him to be on the Historic Church Commission when they first joined St. Michael's, a position he really likes. "I feel best surrounded by things older than I am. It helps us figure out where we fit in," he says. Currently he co-chairs the Lobster Luncheon with Linda Smidt. He is also Senior Warden, sexton, and on the Property Committee.

They both have special memories of St. Michael's. David remembers his first Michaelmas and Peggy remembers one Christmas Pageant when all the tiny children were dressed as angels—their son Noah wasn't even walking yet—and they sat on the steps of the pulpit.

Peggy is a CPA and a consultant who works with a variety of companies as an insource CFO and comptroller. David is an architect by training who is now Chief of Design and Preservation Planning in the National Park Service, Northeast Regional Office. The regional office oversees 140 parks so David travels a lot, from Maine to Virginia. His favorite projects include the Tucker Wharf building, the Longfellow House in Cambridge, and Governor's Island in New York.

They have two children. Sarah will be a sophomore this fall at UMASS Amherst where she studies linguistics along with French, Spanish, and computer science. She finds time to be on the UMASS track team as well. Noah is a senior at MHS this fall. He likes science, runs cross-country and track as well as plays the piano.

What do they do to relax? Peggy laughs, "We never relax!" David says, "I am always working on the house—a life-time project." Peggy adds, "We are slowly but surely working our way through each room." Nevertheless, she does find time to knit, cook, and garden. David adds, "I used to ski with the kids."

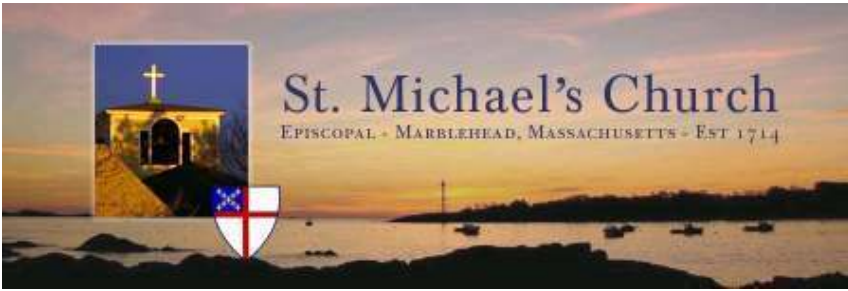

David especially likes one thing about their Harris street home. "Because I travel so much, it is nice on a Sunday to be so close to the church."

- Marilyn Day
